Cleansing Stream Course Frequently Asked Questions

Where did Cleansing Stream come from?

Cleansing Stream has its origins in the 1990s in Dr Jack Hayford's Church on the Way. It seeks individual purity to bring us freedom in our relationship with God and with other people.

What are the benefits of doing the Course?

- Get a better understanding of who you are in Jesus
- Experience the power to live in His abundant life
- Understand the principle of ongoing personal freedom

I feel like I am doing "ok" in my Christian life, should I do the course?

Yes. In every course people like you have their lives transformed as they are set free from generational issues and find freedom in other areas of their lives.

What time commitment is involved?

Required

5 x 1 1/2 hour teaching sessions

1 x weekend non-residential retreat running Friday evening 7:00pm to 9:30pm and Saturday 8:30am – 5:00pm. The retreat gives teaching and ministry in a safe environment on a number of topics that help bring participants to freedom.

Optional (but highly recommended)

5 x 1 1/2 hour homework sessions working through questions in the provided workbook

3 x 1 hour sessions listening to optional CD teaching

Time spent reading 3 x optional reading books

What will it cost?

Each person will need to pay for a minimum of a workbook as well as for attendance at the weekend retreat.

Workbook $60

Weekend Retreat $70

This excludes optional but recommended CD's and reading books. ($80 to purchase these. Some churches arrange to lend these to participants).
